

To the tune of "The Halls of Montezuma" (also known as The Marines' Hymn).

We are the mighty Renegades,
And in Rouse Hill we were made.
We fight our rugby battles,
And we've never been afraid.

We beat that team from _____,
Just to watch them cry.
When they hear the final whistle,
Our skills they can't deny.

We play for each other,
In the rucks and in the maul.
If you've never played for the Renegades,
Then you've never played at all!
